

SOCIETY'S MEMORIAL DAY PLANS

MRS WM. M. FLEITMANN - MISS LIDA LOUISE FLEITMANN - MRS FREDERICK JOHNSON - MISS CONSTANCE ROBINSON - MISS MAUDE A. KENNEDY - MISS KATE GORDON WILLIS - MISS MAI D. WATSON

Racing, Polo and Other Outdoor Attractions Will Lead to Much Entertaining Over the Holiday and Week-End—House Parties at Some Well Known Country Places.

MEMORIAL DAY is always made the occasion of much entertaining on the part of society, and coming as it does this year, on a Saturday, it will be celebrated more brilliantly than usual. All the country places near New York will be the scenes of gay house parties and many of the summer homes at Newport, Southampton and other fashionable resorts will be opened by the end of the week. There will be racing, polo, horse and dog shows, tennis, golf and other sporting affairs during the day, followed by dinners and dances in the evening.

Tuxedo's Horse Show will be held on Friday and Saturday, and this will mean much entertaining over the week-end and holiday by the owners of villas at the park. The club will be filled with guests and on Saturday evening a dance will be given by the governors of the latter. The Scarsdale Golf and Country Club, Westchester County, will have a large dance on the night of Memorial Day and nearly all the other country clubs have planned affairs for that same evening.

The Motor Car Touring Society will make its annual spring run next Wednesday, when the members, with their guests, will motor to Goshen, N. Y. Robert Golet will give a luncheon for them at his country place there and in the evening he will entertain them at a dinner dance at the Goshen Inn. Among the members of the society are Albert Eugene Gallatin, president; Percy R. Fyne, 2d, vice-president; Harold S. Vanderbilt, Oden Mills Reid, Francis L. V. Hoppin, William V. Hoffman, Marshall B. Kernochan, Basil Hollister, Oliver Iselin, Jr., Thorne Wilson, Newbold Morris, Hermann Gehricks, Malcolm D. Sloane, Vincent Astor, William B. Osgood, Field, Henry Rogers Winthrop and M. Taylor Pyne, Jr.

The marriage of Miss Lydia Colt Butler, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen Butler, to Matland Dwight, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Franklin B. Dwight, of Morristown, N. J., will take place next Tuesday afternoon in the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church. Miss Louise Tracy Butler is to be her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids are to be Miss Elaine van Dyke, of Princeton; Miss Mary Paul, of Philadelphia; Miss Helen Hyde, Miss Dorothy Dennis, Miss Alice Dickson and Miss Dorothy Cramp. Mr. Dwight will have Julian Thompson as his best man, and the ushers will be Beverly Ober, of Baltimore; Andrew Munroe, of Philadelphia; James M. Schoonmaker, Jr., of Pittsburgh; Cortlandt Handy, Lemuel Skidmore, Francis B. Larkin, Le Roy K. Howe and Lyman C. Butler. Miss Butler gave a dance Thursday night at her home for the bridal party.

Miss Martha B. Bacon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bacon, will be married to George W. Whitney, of New York and Boston, at noon on Tuesday, June 2, in the Church of the Advent, Westbury, Long Island. The Rev. Richard Pope, rector of the church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Endicott Peabody, of Groton School, will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception and breakfast at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Bacon. A special train will take the guests from New York. Miss Bacon will have for her bridesmaids Miss Eleanor Greene, of Buffalo; Miss Julia Lewis and Miss Eliza Fox, of Philadelphia; Miss Josephine Osborn, Miss Eleanor Koelker and Miss Molly Martin, of this city. Richard Whitney, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man, and the ushers are to be Harold S. Vanderbilt, F. Skiddy von Stade, Elliot C. Bacon, Dudley Pickman, Francis Sargent, J. J. Higginson, Clarence Hay, Elliot Farley, Harrison Tweed and Francis R. Appleton, Jr.

One of the early summer brides will be Miss Ella Marion Lindley, daughter of Charles L. Lindley, of Cape Town, South Africa, whose marriage to William Edgar Baker, Jr., of this city, will be celebrated on June 1 at the home of her uncle, Cornelius du Bois, 47 West 7th st. Only members of the immediate family will witness the ceremony, but a large reception will follow. Miss Lindley will be attended by Mrs. Robert van Valzah, Miss Marion Whitman, Miss Eleanor du Bois, Miss Eugenie Baker, Miss Helen Floyd, Miss Katherine du Bois, Miss Charlotte Baker, Miss Lillian Eggleston and Miss Fitch Haskell, Herbert Jessup, Harold Ober and Mr. Thomas.

Miss Beatrice Raymond, daughter of Mrs. James Raymond, will be married to Ernest Reed Hudson on Tuesday, June 2, at the home of her mother, 13 West 77th st. Mrs. Harold Carhart will act as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Helen Rickett, Miss Mildred Holmes, Miss Eugenie Russell and Miss Katharine Fitch. Harriet Coffin, daughter of Mrs. J. Robert Coffin, and Mary Chester, daughter of Mrs. Clair Chester, will be flower girls. J. Herbert Coffin, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, will be best man, and Quentin F. Feltner, Turner Morehead, Douglas Gibson and Angier Duke will be ushers.
